  - b. Basketball season went really well
  - c. Craft Time -went well $1,100, kids had a blast, donations from Save On were amazing. Missed having parents there. $10 = 10 tickets. Kids came away with some nice stuff. Anything left over went out with the raffle.
  - d. Christmas Show - Ms. Lacroix wrote the play, Mrs. Draboczi - did all of the filming - thank you to her. Great production in the end. Action: Rita will get receipts to PAC/Suzy to pay for costs associated with production
  - e. COVID update - exposure notices sent out to RSS. From an AHE perspective - continuing as we were before, physical distancing, wearing masks if they choose, adults are wearing masks, no "fake" hand washing. Today was a positive day at school. Students are in good spirits. Staff have been amazing - a sense of normalcy been created at the school, one of the reasons why our year has gone so well so far
  - f. Upcoming school events - Grade 4/7 students complete survey MDI put out by UBC - anonymous. We can derive our school focus area with the results. This year there is a series of COVID questions to see how students are feeling. The FSA is coming up for Grade 4/7 as well. - reading, writing and numeracy instruction. See if we are on track w/ the rest of the province
  - g. Badminton coming up - 5-7 -
  - h. Grade 3/6 - Downhill (Fridays), Grade 4 - Nordic (Friday's), still working on Skating, Grade 2 and 5 are set to swim, K gymnastics in the Spring.
  - i. PJ Day on January 22nd - curl up and read
  - j. January 28th - hot lunch - Emo's - Acton: Amy will touch base with Suzy regarding the date. Krystal is available to pick up pizza if Suzy is not available.

k. Kindergarten registration happening last week of January - spread the word.

Action: Angela to put ad on Facebook. Spread the word.

6. Teacher's Report – Amber Thompson - update on student leadership. We had the food drive/toiletries drive - we got quite a lot of donations -filled the truck. Thanks to everyone who donated. Put in the order for the masks, a reasonable amount ordered. Hoping to receive by the end of January/early Feb. Anti bullying day coming up in February. T Shirt order for those who do not have a Pink shirt. Yearbook - still coming along. Gabriella - Battle of the books happening. A list of books coming home. We are participating with the other Revelstoke schools. Mrs. Irving resigned as the library clerk, we are in the process of hiring a new clerk. There have been two grade 5 and 6 book clubs - there are 12 - 16 kids that regularly attended. Calendar - did well - approx $800. Thanks to the families who purchased. No money required from PAC. Sold 120 calendars. Christmas production - went well. Feedback - really great. Normally, not everyone gets to see it - so in future if they are taped would be great. Any parents who have feedback on production, please provide to Gabriella. Sometimes the volume was in and out. Feedback- get a larger green screen to be able to film more kids together. Hopes that everyone had a good Xmas and break.
